

Short Prayers in a Rosary Format Versions 11 - 22 (2024)

By B. de St.-G.

The following 12 rosaries are text-to-voice compatible. Each Rosary includes all 58 prayers in standard rosary format, which allows devotees to listen rather than speak the prayers. Devotees of the Rosary can also listen to the prayers as a way of memorizing them. You will notice strange punctuation. The commas slow the narration so that important words receive emphasis. That is crucial for computer-reading, since the computer voice can sometimes slur words together.

ROSARY VERSION 11

Risen Christ, through Your divine power the Crucifix has become mankind's most recognizable symbol.
The Crucifix teaches us self-sacrifice and peaceful acceptance of death.
Risen Christ, help me observe the virtues taught by Your Holy Crucifix.
Amen.

Holy Trinity, Who are in Heaven, hallowed be your Name.
Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Guide us away from temptation, and rescue us when we have succumbed to evil. Amen.

Hail Immaculata, the Holy Spirit abides in You.
You are blessed among women.
The Fruit of Your Womb has become Risen Christ, who was molded by you as inspired by the Holy Spirit.
Holy Immaculata, Queen of the Apostles, Mother of God, intercede for us sinners, now until the hour of our death.
Amen.

GLORY BE to the Holy Trinity. It is everlasting and independent of Time.
Praise be the Trinity for its compassion toward humans who cry from a valley of tears. We are but pawns in the battle between Lightness and darkness. I pray that I may join the Holy Trinity in heavenly paradise, against whose gates Satan cannot prevail.
Amen.

O Holy Trinity, Who has used human suffering to purchase for us the hope of eternal salvation; grant, we beseech You, that meditating on these mysteries of the most holy Rosary, we may hope to draw closer to You and to know Your law. To requite our willing obedience, may we hope You end our enormous earthly sufferings, to the extent of Your power.
Amen.

Risen Christ commands us to love even our evil neighbor, as ourselves, yet he also advises against earthly entanglements.
Lord, Is shunning people an evil for evil?
In treating evil-doers with gentleness do we not expose ourselves to corruption?
God replies to us, "Vengeance is mine", and not yours.
Trust in Me and do good.
Lord, how can we stay pure unless we shun evil-doers?
When one thinks of all the deceptions in life,
one feels the need to take refuge in the inner life,
as Risen Christ teaches.
Amen.

Self-consciousness is comparing oneself to the external world, which is an impediment to union with God.
With the external world comes sins like vanity.
God asks us to look inward to the light in the soul.
He gives us graces to encourage us to look inward, and to comprehend the truths and, laws imbedded there.
Risen Christ calls the external world a distraction,
and he cautions against external attachments.
Risen Christ, You ask that we abandon our obsession with the created world and follow You.

Risen Christ, You ask that we give up all possessions in order to follow You.

By that, You are saying we must give up our obsession with created things.

Yet scripture encourages physical well-being.

Lord, can we all live as hermits or itinerants and yet maintain the health of all humans?

Is not prolonged labor necessary for survival?

We live by Your lessons, All-Knowing God,

Yet Your lessons perplex us, sometimes.

our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To you we cry, poor banished children of
Eve. To you we send up our sighs,

Pray for us that we may follow Risen Christ's message

Even on earth, humans can achieve the perfect goodness that would produce union with God.
A state of grace is necessary for that union,
But Grace is not a guarantee of that union; it is a means.
Grace must reach a sanctifying level for us to have immediate union with God on earth, which requires an almost unobtainable level of self-denial and humility.
O Most Generous Holy Trinity, guide us to God's laws that we may fulfill our hope of union with You in the afterlife.

But Grace is not a guarantee of that union; it is a means.
Grace must reach a sanctifying level for us to have immediate union with God on earth,
which requires an almost unobtainable level of self-denial and humility.
O Most Generous Holy Trinity, guide us to God's laws that we may fulfill our hope of union with You in the afterlife.

Holy Trinity, You place a very high bar for sanctity.
We are empty without a belief that union with God is our proper aspiration, and we are hopeless without trust in his truths.
Unless we sacrifice ourselves for God through Good Works,
we will have no place in heaven;
Nor can we join the Godhead with a heavy burden of sin.
But, Merciful Lord, we take courage from Your goodness, which is lenient toward renewing the state of grace,
despite bad behavior,
provided there is contrition and intention to seek absolution.

The merit of Good Works lies not in the action itself or any divine benefit bestowed.
The merit results from our self-sacrifice and humility.
When we save the lives of our brothers,
we increase Your earthly worshippers.
Our best help to our brothers is to inspire them to live as Your true children.
Holy Trinity, remind us to make our every act exalt You.

Proof that the catholic church is Risen Christ's direct heir is uncontroverted.
As true catholics, we must defend catholicism as the sole source of God's revelation.
Inasmuch as the church prohibits conversation with Satan, it also precludes exploratory worship at non-catholic sects.
Lord God, rescue Your church from its weak dissemination of Your revelations.
Persuade those faithful who are still ardent catholics to demand better catholic education and proselytizing.

HAIL HOLY QUEEN, O holy mother of Risen Christ;
our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To

Eve. To you we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.
Turn, then, most gracious advocate, your

Risen Christ, through Your divine power the Crucifix has become mankind's most recognizable symbol.

The Crucifix teaches us self-sacrifice and peaceful acceptance of death. Risen Christ, help me observe the virtues taught by Your Holy Crucifix. Amen.

Holy Trinity, Who are in Heaven, hallowed be your Name.
Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Guide us away from temptation, and rescue us when we have succumbed to evil. Amen.

Hail Immaculata, the Holy Spirit abides in You.
You are blessed among women.
The Fruit of Your Womb has become Risen Christ, who was molded by you as inspired by the Holy Spirit.
Holy Immaculata, Queen of the Apostles, Mother of God, intercede for us sinners, now until the hour of our death.

The worst tragedy one may suffer in life is to die without receiving the last rights of the church.
We risk perdition without a final cleansing of our souls.
Yet some heretics risk damnation by refusing the last rights,

Lord, You will find me penitent at all times.
Grant me the benefit of a confessor in my final moments

Lord God-Creator, we rarely hear Your voice.
You send Your message to mankind through Risen Christ and the Holy Spirit.
It is as if You are shrouded behind the heavenly throne.
Yet we know that all acts of the Holy Trinity come from
You, the Holy Spirit and Risen Christ acting as one.
When Risen Christ said he is Your, immanence on earth, is he not speaking through an avatar of the Trinity, namely Jesus?
Likewise, is not Immaculata too perfect to be human?

Lord God-Creator, we rarely hear Your voice.
You send Your message to mankind through Risen Christ and the Holy Spirit.
It is as if You are shrouded behind the heavenly throne.

You, the Holy Spirit and Risen Christ acting as one.

However, for remorseless and repeat sinners,
You will withhold mercy and grace.
I beg at Your throne, Holy Trinity, that You would always

To know God's law requires the elevation of human reason.
All day long the Holy Spirit offers us His heavenly counsel, enlightening our minds to an understanding of the deep truths of faith, and generally imparting to us that deep knowledge without which we cannot make good use of our Wills.

Common sense is an insufficient path to holiness.
Glorious Holy Spirit, I have reserved the center of my soul for Your abiding guidance.
I pray also for the majority of fellow humans,
who always ignore Your counsel.
Amen.

Lord God, You express Your Will through providence.
Risen Christ admits that providence is sometimes cruel.
He advises us to suffer willingly in God's name.
Suffering is not allowed to enter the soul.

by following His laws, especially regarding humility and patience.
Risen Christ, give me the patience to endure

HAIL HOLY QUEEN, O holy mother of Risen Christ;
our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To you we cry, poor banished children of
Eve. To you we send up our sighs,

Pray for us that we may follow Risen Christ's message

to evil. Amen.

Those who have not listened to God,
do not understand that the short time of earthly existence pales before the coming supernatural life.
God asks us to devote ourselves to him, which does not mean foregoing our earthly duties.
We must merely put God at the center of our souls.
The church does a poor job of proselytizing the imperative of seeking a holy life.

Sadly, anyone who says he lives only to do good,
will arouse skepticism and amusement from his fellow men.
Lord, strengthen Your church to increase those who would sacrifice themselves to You.

The Holy Spirit has given each of us inner morality and the inspiration to do good and avoid evil.
Grace inspires us to deep introspection, into the truths of that morality, and molds the acts of the Will according to our introspection.
God also gifts grace to improve our intellect and thusly elevate the righteousness of our Will.
We cannot ask directly for grace but can ask for grace through saintly and angelic intercession, such as through Immaculata.
God gifts us with grace for salutary acts such as prayer and participation in the sacraments.
Great is Your goodness, O Lord, that You stand ready to provision us with grace so as to perfect our union with You.
Amen.

Mortal sin is the removal of God from the center of our souls, in order to replace him with an earthly desire.
The most severe punishment for the worst mortal sin, apostasy, used to be performed by humans themselves,
when sinners were burned at the stake.
The church still exacts draconian punishments for mortal sin, which it metes out rather freely. For example, one Sunday mass missed because of sloth is enough to send one to hell,
If the sinner puts off Holy Confession before dying.
Lord, I do not believe You are the vengeful godhead that the church envisions by its excoriating regime.
I beg You to reassure me that my sincere contrition and Your infinite mercy ought to save me from the permanent loss of all grace.
Have not we humans found on occasion no priest for confession?
Amen.

Guide us away from temptation, and rescue us when we have succumbed
to evil. Amen.

God infuses us with virtues and then gives us grace to act upon those virtues.

The church calls that grace, “actual grace”, because it actualizes our Wills to fulfill his laws.
Lord, my highest ambition is to know and fulfill Your laws.
Without Your stimulus I would fall upon the short-term pleasures of life.
We forget Your constant vigilance to bring us into supernatural union with You.

Without Your stimulus I would fall upon the short-term pleasures of life.
We forget Your constant vigilance to bring us into supernatural union with You.

God infuses us with virtues and then gives us grace to act upon those virtues.

All acts of devotion are nothing by themselves.
Only by eliminating self-love can we truly devote ourselves to God.
God seeks the center of our souls, and sternly guards that position.
God will not tolerate self-love's encroachments on the center of our souls.
We must replace self-love with divine worship.
Lord, I know my prayers, good works and attendance at the sacraments are for naught if You are not at the center of my soul.
Abide in that rightful place,

and never abandon me when in weakness I leave my soul unguarded.

O All-Seeing God, if there is anything in my nature that is impious,
I will reform it.
Give me enhanced reason, to know what piety expects from me,
and give me the intellectual keenness to scrutinize myself.
Risen Christ, with an image of Your crucifix before me daily,
I am constantly reminded of, the example of Your extraordinary piety.

ROSARY VERSION 17

Risen Christ, through Your divine power the Crucifix has become mankind's
most recognizable symbol.

The Crucifix teaches us self-sacrifice and peaceful acceptance of death.
Risen Christ, help me observe the virtues taught by Your Holy Crucifix.

Amen.

Holy Trinity, Who are in Heaven, hallowed be your Name.
Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Guide us away from temptation, and rescue us when we have succumbed
to evil. Amen.

Hail Immaculata, the Holy Spirit abides in You.
You are blessed among women.
The Fruit of Your Womb has become Risen Christ, who was molded by you as inspired by the Holy Spirit.
Holy Immaculata, Queen of the Apostles, Mother of God, intercede for us sinners, now until the hour of our death.
Amen.

of eternal salvation; grant, we beseech You, that meditating on these
and to know Your law. To requite our willing obedience, may we hope

By Your goodness, You guide us toward salvation.

Temperance is salubrious both for soul and earthly society.
It keeps the appetite for pleasures within reasonable bounds.
Our appetites are both natural and from temptation.
The appetites become excessive when they encroach on God's central position in our souls.
Risen Christ I beg You to send me temporary grace to alert me to the loss of self-control that leads to intemperance.

A peaceful mind comes from pleasing God.
An obsession with pleasing men or fear of their displeasure will make us uneasy and hungry for peace.
With purity of soul, and endowed with Your graces, Lord,
we can hope to ascend, daily, to the peace of Your realm.
I crave the peace of Your realm, O Soothing God.
Inspire me to do the salutary acts that please You,
such as prayer, good works, and the sacraments.

A peaceful mind comes from pleasing God.
An obsession with pleasing men or fear of their displeasure
will make us uneasy and hungry for peace.
With purity of soul, and endowed with Your graces, Lord,
we can hope to ascend, daily, to the peace of Your realm.
I crave the peace of Your realm, O Soothing God.
Inspire me to do the salutary acts that please You,
such as prayer, good works, and the sacraments.
Amen.

Antecedent appetite is a passion that stimulates sin before the intellect has a chance to judge it as wrong.

Since a person's Will has not had the chance to offer resistance, there may be little culpability for the sin.
Yet a victim may suffer.
In some cases, a person may habitually express evil passions, intentionally bypassing the salutary judgements necessary for the will-for-good to intervene.
God will justly punish such habits.
Lord, give us the fortitude to bring a malicious person back to union with You.
Accept our prayers that Your redemptive (prevenient), grace could bring about the sinner's absolute contrition and atonement.
Amen.

our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To

Sloth is a sin.
It is inertness in the face of the Trinity,
who beckons for our devotion.
Sloth should be distinguished from leisure, which energizes our talents.
Watching game shows on television hour after hour, or playing video games hour after hour, are examples of sloth.
Excessive exercising and body-building are sloth.
God's law forbids sloth when it precludes worship.

Instead of sloth, we should do good to fellow men in genuine need.
Human society also requires our energetic support.
Holy Spirit, vivify me should I fall into sloth, and neglect my duties to God and man.

We hear from some theologians that God is anti-human;
one cannot read St. Augustine, a doctor of the church, without concluding that Augustine's God will send most people to hell.
(A wicked perspective rejected by the church).
Risen Christ points to suffering as the essence of human life on earth.
But he treats it as a salutary act that when offered to God, pleases him.
St. Mother Teresa called suffering the kiss of God.
What many call God's sternness is His compassion,
in which he seeks the purity of his children.
Bluntly, God does not want, sinning, human trash, besmirching his glory.
He will abandon such humans, awaiting their contrition.
Yet, Lord Risen Christ, Your grace is profuse and easy to gain.
I trust in Your goodness. Say but the word and my soul shall be healed.
Amen.

We hear from some theologians that God is anti-human;
one cannot read St. Augustine, a doctor of the church, without concluding that Augustine's God will send most people to hell.
(A wicked perspective rejected by the church).
Risen Christ points to suffering as the essence of human life on earth.
But he treats it as a salutary act that when offered to God, pleases him.
St. Mother Teresa called suffering the kiss of God.
What many call God's sternness is His compassion,
in which he seeks the purity of his children.

Holy Trinity, You allow sin a foothold in human souls.
The ineptest theological prognosis ever conceived is that most of us are predestined to be unsalvageable sinners.
The best explanation for sin is that we are born weak towards evil, and the forces of darkness have free reign on earth.
We are pawns in the battle between forces of light and the nearly irresistible forces of darkness.
Yet, the forces of light marshal behind the Holy Catholic Church, founded by Risen Christ to guide all souls toward heaven.
Holy Trinity, succor Your church, which could have the power to lead the powers of light to victory on earth.
Amen.

Malice is a horrendous evil lying at the core of most sins.
Malicious people disdain God's Law and God himself.
Malice is incorrigible and therefore persistent.
It is deliberately hurtful to fellow men.
Lord, those who harbor malice, You will instantly demolish,
And there will be no recovery.
The only slight hope for the malicious is Your prevenient grace, which may inspire contrition and atonement, and complete reform of the evil will.
We pray for the malicious, that the immensity of Your mercy may rescue them from the yawning pit, they have dug for themselves.
Amen.

HAIL HOLY QUEEN, O holy mother of Risen Christ;
our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To you we cry, poor banished children of
Eve. To you we send up our sighs,

Turn, then, most gracious advocate, your

O peaceful, O loving, O sweet Immaculata.
Pray for us that we may follow Risen Christ's message

The Crucifix teaches us self-sacrifice and peaceful acceptance of death.
Risen Christ, help me observe the virtues taught by Your Holy Crucifix.

Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,

Guide us away from temptation, and rescue us when we have succumbed
to evil. Amen.

Because you are afraid of being despised,
you are not willing to be reprehended for your faults,
and instead seek to shelter yourself in excuses.
But if You look into yourself,

you will find that the earthly world is still living in you,
and with it a vain desire to please men.
When you are unwilling to be humbled, by your defects,
it is plain indeed that You are not truly dead to the world,
as Risen Christ preached.
Give ear to Risen Christ's word,
and then even a thousand calumnies will not
scare you from admitting your faults.

it is plain indeed that You are not truly dead to the world,
as Risen Christ preached.
Give ear to Risen Christ's word,
and then even a thousand calumnies will not
scare you from admitting your faults.
Amen.

Because you are afraid of being despised,
you are not willing to be reprehended for your faults,
and instead seek to shelter yourself in excuses.
But if You look into yourself,
you will find that the earthly world is still living in you,
and with it a vain desire to please men.
When you are unwilling to be humbled, by your defects,
it is plain indeed that You are not truly dead to the world,

HAIL HOLY QUEEN, O holy mother of Risen Christ;
our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To you we cry, poor banished children of
Eve. To you we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.
Turn, then, most gracious advocate, your

O peaceful, O loving, O sweet Immaculata.
Pray for us that we may follow Risen Christ's message
and know God's law. Amen.

ROSARY VERSION 20

Risen Christ, through Your divine power the Crucifix has become mankind's
most recognizable symbol.
The Crucifix teaches us self-sacrifice and peaceful acceptance of death.
Risen Christ, help me observe the virtues taught by Your Holy Crucifix.

Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Guide us away from temptation, and rescue us when we have succumbed
to evil. Amen.

Hail Immaculata, the Holy Spirit abides in You.
You are blessed among women.
The Fruit of Your Womb has become Risen Christ, who was molded by you
as inspired by the Holy Spirit.
Holy Immaculata, Queen of the Apostles, Mother of God, intercede
for us sinners, now until the hour of our death.

O Holy Trinity, Who has used human suffering to purchase for us the hope of eternal salvation; grant, we beseech You, that meditating on these mysteries of the most holy Rosary, we may hope to draw closer to You and to know Your law. To requite our willing obedience, may we hope You end our enormous earthly sufferings, to the extent of Your power.

If we beseech God, our prayers will not evoke His justice or His Will, but evoke solely his mercy, which he bestows only gratuitously.

Prayer is effective only when inspired by God through prevenient grace, which is enabling or motivating grace.

Inspire me, O Lord, to true prayer, which is motivated only by You.

Even without our prayers, God senses

when we need divine help.

He will give the needy person enabling grace that inspires the person's own will to address his needs,

and God will give restorative grace.

Charity is selflessness for God's sake.
We give ourselves to God by denying ourselves.
Charity is the suppression of one's Will,
in order to derive one's entire morality and motivation from God.

Charity requires that we love God more than ourselves.
The Virtue of Charity is God's way of giving humans the power to meet him supernaturally.

One of Christ's major gifts to mankind was founding the catholic church.
The church, as an institution, is an external organization,
But Risen Christ means for us to internalize its teachings.
Along with God's Law, spiritual truths, and the abiding presence of the Holy Trinity in our soul,
it is one of the lights of salvation.
Baptized catholics are required by church law to
give it subsistence.
Risen Christ, inspire me to succor Your Holy Church,
that it may endure forever.

But Risen Christ means for us to internalize its teachings.
Along with God's Law, spiritual truths, and the abiding presence of the Holy Trinity in our soul,
it is one of the lights of salvation.
Baptized catholics are required by church law to
give it subsistence.
Risen Christ, inspire me to succor Your Holy Church,
that it may endure forever.
Amen.

Church tenets dictate that absolution of sin is possible only through a priest.
That tenet has been supported by much catholic scholarship.
However, were the faithful rigorously taught proper contrition, penance and atonement, God, in his generous mercy, might absolve sinners without the sacrament of confession.
The church rigidly opposes that, saying even an isolated dying person cannot receive absolution from God in the absence of a priest.
Lord, I beg for Your revival of a dwindling priesthood, or a change in Your church's tenets.
Amen.

People foolishly think they can wear false piety.
They believe that by routinely feigning piety, such as prayer or attendance at the Holy Mass,
God's justice will reward them.
God will disappear into the ether in response to such counterfeit piety.
Lord, turn Your back if I am impious.

HAIL HOLY QUEEN, O holy mother of Risen Christ;
our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To you we cry, poor banished children of
Eve. To you we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.
Turn, then, most gracious advocate, your privilege of intercession toward us.
O peaceful, O loving, O sweet Immaculata.
Pray for us that we may follow Risen Christ's message
and know God's law. Amen.

ROSARY VERSION 21

Risen Christ, through Your divine power the Crucifix has become mankind's
most recognizable symbol.
The Crucifix teaches us self-sacrifice and peaceful acceptance of death.
Risen Christ, help me observe the virtues taught by Your Holy Crucifix.
Amen.

Holy Trinity, Who are in Heaven, hallowed be your Name.
Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Guide us away from temptation, and rescue us when we have succumbed
to evil. Amen.

Hail Immaculata, the Holy Spirit abides in You.
You are blessed among women.

The Fruit of Your Womb has become Risen Christ, who was molded by you as inspired by the Holy Spirit.
Holy Immaculata, Queen of the Apostles, Mother of God, intercede for us sinners, now until the hour of our death.
Amen.

O Holy Trinity, Who has used human suffering to purchase for us the hope of eternal salvation; grant, we beseech You, that meditating on these mysteries of the most holy Rosary, we may hope to draw closer to You and to know Your law. To requite our willing obedience, may we hope You end our enormous earthly sufferings, to the extent of Your power.

From the crucifix Jesus Christ begs God to not abandon him.
His cry, as it occurs in scripture, is intended to raise our human empathy.
God never abandoned him.
Each of us, at times, has cried out in feelings of abandonment.
The spirit of Jesus Christ of the Bible, was not abandoned,
But arose as Risen Christ, a facet of the godhead.
God may turn his back on us momentarily, in order to evoke the isolation cry that is so wrenching to all humans.

He intends in that way to recapture our souls.
God promises never to abandon those who trust in him.
Amen.

God is goodness.
Humans, in contrast, are not born good or evil,
but follow each's own path.
However, whatever is, good for a person comes from God.
We must adhere to his laws and conform to His virtues,

God-Creator, am I not also capable of goodness?
I seek to emulate Your goodness that You may straighten my path to You.

God is goodness.
Humans, in contrast, are not born good or evil,
but follow each's own path.
However, whatever is, good for a person comes from God.
We must adhere to his laws and conform to His virtues,
in order to profit from his goodness.
God-Creator, am I not also capable of goodness?
I seek to emulate Your goodness that You may
straighten my path to You.
Amen.

darkness. I pray that I may join the Holy Trinity in heavenly paradise, against whose gates Satan cannot prevail.

The church cautions us to have a sober demeanor, so as not to ridicule our status as children of God.
When raucously conversing with a companion,
we feel levity of heart,
when, because of the sorrow of our spirit,
we ought to weep.
Sorrow leads us to union with God, though,
our time on earth is short.
Risen Christ, accept my suffering as a gift to God, as You command.

HAIL HOLY QUEEN, O holy mother of Risen Christ; our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To you we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To you we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn, then, most gracious advocate, your privilege of intercession toward us. O peaceful, O loving, O sweet Immaculata. Pray for us that we may follow Risen Christ's message and know God's law. Amen.

Risen Christ, through Your divine power the Crucifix has become mankind's most recognizable symbol. The Crucifix teaches us self-sacrifice and peaceful acceptance of death. Risen Christ, help me observe the virtues taught by Your Holy Crucifix. Amen.

Holy Trinity, Who are in Heaven, hallowed be your Name.

Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Guide us away from temptation, and rescue us when we have succumbed
to evil. Amen.

You are blessed among women.
The Fruit of Your Womb has become Risen Christ, who was molded by you
as inspired by the Holy Spirit.
Holy Immaculata, Queen of the Apostles, Mother of God, intercede

Eve's forbidden tree symbolizes the burden of self-consciousness.
Suddenly her eyes were opened to the,
false, promises of the external world.
Self-consciousness has led us humans to truer than any earthly beacon.
